PLANTRONICA Jason Singh and Edible Bow

1. Info Hub

2. Edible Bow Community Orchard, Daling Way

3. Edible Bow Community Herb Garden, Old Ford Rd (next to the Lord Morpeth pub)

12 - 6pm. An augmented reality sound and visual installation which uses plant biodata to generate unique soundscapes. Local kids have made collages for you to scan on your phone and listen to the unique sound of plants.

THOUSAND PAPERS ShumGhostJohn

4. St Stephen's Green

12 - 6pm. A community installation + durational performance of East Asian folktales and traditions in public space. ShumGhostJohn lead the activities of folding papers-making origami. They invite you to fold paper and create origami to express your thoughts, stories and memories in the space. These origami will be tied up and hovered in the air, holding memories and hopes.

SHY GOD CHAPTER MỘT Moi Tran

5. Chisenhale Dance Space fire escape staircase

4pm - 6pm. 'Shy God Chapter MỘt' is a work in progress performance, that boldly places ESEA narratives at its heart to resist 'extinction', through the story of Vietnamese activist singer Lộc Vàng. This performance will comprise of four elements, reading, music, installation, and video, presenting ideas around record, preservation, legend and the political entanglement of voice. Performed in Vietnamese with English subtitles.

DANCE OF THE BOW MAGPIE Quang Van Kien

6. Gunmaker's Lane Bridge

12 - 12:10 | 1pm - 1:10 | 2pm - 2:10 | 4pm - 4:10 | 5pm - 5:10

An earthly physical dance solo drawing from the natural world and mythical world to bring audiences closer to the present moment.

三星 SANXING [THREE STARS] Eelyn Lee

7. Urban Makers, 347 Roman Rd

12 - 5pm. A new film work, playing continuously through the festival. The performers echo Fu, Lu and Shou known as the Sanxing [three stars], who in Chinese mythology represent fortune, prosperity and longevity.

DIY DEMOS Roman Road Trust w/ Jo Behari

8. The Common Room, next to Roman Rd car park

12 - 4pm. Join Jo Behari and Roman Road Trust for DIY DEMOS at the site of The Common Room. This is your chance to pick up a power tool, get wild with wallpaper, and say farewell to the temporary version of The Common Room before it is demolished to make way for a brand-new building.

WASTED MUD Yu Ji

9. Chisenhale Gallery

12 - 6pm. Yu Ji's work explores a tension between physical matter and energy. Recurring materials used in her work, such as cement, wood, metal, plastic and organic matter all have their distinctive characteristics, tactility and 'temperatures'. In her installations, these materials oppose, rub and strike against one another; proposing by their proximity how they might merge, combine or absorb one into the other.

COLLECTIVE BREATH Kimvi

Various locations ●●●●●●●●●●

An art trail with a difference, 'Collective Breath' is an outdoor balloon installation hidden around the streets of Chisenhale Dance studios, and spreading across towards Roman Road. These surprising installations are an opportunity to engage and explore the vibrant community that makes up this friendly diverse neighborhood. We've given you the first location, see if you can find the others! Remember to look up down and all around!

DON'T SING IN THE KITCHEN OR YOU'LL MARRY AN OLD MAN Anna Sulan Masing

1. Link from the Info Hub

12 - 6pm We listen to Malaysian food stall owner Dayang leave a voicenote to one of her regular customers who has sent her an email with an exciting, life changing proposal. As she cooks in her small London kitchen, preparing for the day ahead of her on the stall, we hear her question whether she wants this opportunity. Listening whilst walking through the bustling streets of Roman Rd Market will bring the private and public together through evocative and personal storytelling.
